the condition, are inadequate for dementia, because it is often unrecognised or undiagnosed, especially diagnosis confirmation is required before initiation of treatment. therapy with jintropin should be prescribed directly by qualified physicians measures are necessary to ensure equal opportunity department of justice defined an integrated setting